

Programme updated on 30.09.2024

Name of the Educational Institution	Legal Entity of Public Law – Batumi Shota Rustaveli State University
Name of the Educational Programme	Economics
Qualification to be Awarded	Bachelor of Economics
Programme Coordinator(s)	Natia Tsiklashvili – Professor, e-mail: natia.tsiklashvili@bsu.edu.ge Murman Tsetskhadze – Associate Professor, e-mail: murman.Tsetskhadze@bsu.edu.ge
Programme Structure / ECTS Volume	240 ECTS
Language of Instruction	Georgian
Admission Prerequisites to the Educational Programme	Unified National Examinations; Enrolment through mobility; Admission without Unified National Examinations in accordance with the procedure established by law.
Aim of the Educational Programme	To prepare bachelor graduates in line with modern requirements who, using basic economic terminology, are able to explain the characteristics of micro- and macroeconomic phenomena and processes; Based on the situation of individuals and firms, are able to discuss which goods and services are scarce and valuable and participate in the formation of decisions; Collect reliable information on the production, distribution and consumption of national income, as well as on savings, investments, exchange rate and the balance of payments; Identify the regularities of the international movement of goods, factors of production and financial assets.
Learning Outcomes	Upon completion of the programme, the graduate will be able to: Generalise the basic concepts, theories, principles, postulates and concepts of economics, as well as the methodology and regularities of micro- and macroeconomics; Explain the qualitative, statistical and quantitative methods necessary for micro- and macroeconomic analysis, and the principles of collecting and grouping statistical data; Formulate the main principles of the system of public administration, the theory and practice of the state's economic and financial policy, the regulation of the public sector economy and the social economy by the state, and the functioning of economic systems;

	Identify the financial and socio-economic situation in the country, the factors causing labour market trends and migration, living standards of the population, and the possibilities for overcoming poverty; Become acquainted with and share the advanced experience accumulated in regional economics, in the activities of transnational corporations and in the field of international investment in the world's successful countries.
--	---