

Programme updated on 30.09.2024

Name of the Educational Institution	Legal Entity of Public Law – Batumi Shota Rustaveli State University
Name of the Educational Programme	Economics
Qualification to be Awarded	Master of Economics
Programme Coordinator(s)	Natia Tsiklashvili – Professor, e-mail: natia.tsiklashvili@bsu.edu.ge Murman Tsetskhladze – Associate Professor, e-mail: murman.Tsetskhladze@bsu.edu.ge
Programme Structure / ECTS Volume	120 ECTS
Language of Instruction	Georgian
Admission Prerequisites to the Educational Programme	Unified Master’s Examination; Internal university examinations: foreign language – B2 level, and specialty exam; Enrolment through mobility; Admission without Unified National Examinations, in accordance with the procedure established by law.
Aim of the Educational Programme	To prepare specialists with deep and systematic theoretical knowledge, who understand the regularities of the functioning of the economy and are able to analyse economic phenomena and processes;  To develop in students analytical economic thinking, and to teach them the technology of preparing and taking rational decisions for the development of strategies for state economic regulation and the improvement of the entrepreneurial environment;  To enable graduates to use the modern achievements of microeconomic theory and analytical instruments when making business decisions.
Learning Outcomes	On the basis of the acquired theoretical knowledge, analyse economic and political events and processes taking place in society, identify problems arising in international economic relations and elaborate ways to solve them, taking into account international economic and legal aspects;  Assess economic processes taking place in the economy using qualitative and quantitative methods, and determine ways to overcome macroeconomic instability;  Analyse a firm’s production volume, determine the relationship between costs and profit, identify problems and outline ways to solve them;  Make managerial decisions in competitive markets and apply pricing practices in markets with market power.